PRIVACY POLICY – THIAGARAJAR COLLEGE

1. Overview

Your privacy is important to Thiagarajar College. We are committed to protecting your personal information and respecting your privacy when you visit and use our official website.

This Privacy Policy applies to the official Thiagarajar College website, including its homepage and other major sections such as About Us, Academics, Departments, Admissions, Research, Student Activities, Campus Life, Examination, Alumni, Contact Us and Feedback.

Certain departments, centres, activities or other individuals associated with the College may maintain separate websites or web pages. Such websites may have their own privacy policies, which will apply independently of this Privacy Policy.

2. Your Personal Information

Visitors can access the official Thiagarajar College website without identifying themselves or providing any personal information.

Personal information is collected only when visitors voluntarily provide such information through specific online services or facilities available on the website.

3. Voluntarily Provided Information

While using specific features of the Thiagarajar College website, such as online enquiry forms, admission enquiry forms, feedback forms, contact forms or other online services, visitors may be required to provide certain personal information, including their name, email address, mobile number or other relevant details.

The information provided will be used only for the purposes for which it has been submitted, including responding to enquiries, providing requested information, processing applications and communicating with students, parents, applicants and other stakeholders.

4. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns or requests regarding this Privacy Policy, the collection or processing of your personal information, or the use of information submitted through the College website, please contact the College through the official contact details provided on the Thiagarajar College website.
